Bea

Christine Sharp lives on beautiful Tamborine Mountain in the Gold Coast hinterland, where she delights in birdsong every day. Bea is her first book.

www.christinesharp.com

For my family, friends and loved ones who believe in me.
You are always in my heart.

First published 2013 by University of Queensland Press
PO Box 4042, St Lucia, Queensland 4067 Australia
www.uqp.com.au
uqp@uqp.uq.edu.au

© Christine Sharp 2013
This book is copyright. Except for private study, research, criticism or reviews, as permitted under the Copyright Act, no part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means without prior written permission. Enquiries should be made to the publisher.

Design and layout by Christine Sharp
Printed in China by 1010 Printing International

Cataloguing-in-Publication Data
National Library of Australia
Sharp, Christine, 1968–
Bea (Christine Sharp).–First published 2013
ISBN 978 0 7022 4961 7 (hbk.)
For pre-school age

University of Queensland Press uses papers that are natural, renewable and recyclable products made from wood grown in sustainable forests. The logging and manufacturing processes conform to the environmental regulations of the country of origin.
Bea is a bird of unusual tastes ...

for a bird, that is.
She likes to bake biscuits, buns and berry pudding.

while the other birds peck at ants and watch worms wiggle.

Bea likes to dress up and dance to disco beats,

while the other birds flock together and fluff their feathers.
Bea likes to bathe in bubbles on rainy afternoons.